POLITICAL.

South Carolina Greenbackers.

Columbus, Sept. 5.—At the afternoon session the committee on platform and resolutions recommended adoption of the programme of the greenback party heretofore promulgated in an address and resolutions. The address is an arraignment and indictment of the democratic party for tyrannical actions, social proscription of opponents, murder, ballot-box stuffing and unjust tribunals of justice. It attacks the eight box system for elections as a political device to disfranchise thousands of both races, and says the registration law has been shamefully abused and condemns the shifting of ballot boxes in secret session. D. Hendricks McLean was nominated for governor by acclamation, and R. D. White of Charleston for lieutenant governor. White declined but the convention refused to accept his declination. Augustus Landers was nominated for attorney general amid much confusion, and a motion to take a recess prevailed. Secret session was in progress at a late hour.

The Vermont Election.

Boston, Sept. 6.—Latest returns from Vermont: 192 towns give Barstow, republican, for governor 18,805; Eaton, democrat, 6361; Martin, greenback, and scattering, 776. Barstow's majority over all, 11,177. 78 towns in the first congressional district give Stewart, republican, a majority over all of 4961; 49 towns in the second district give Poland, republican, a majority over all of 1726. The legislature will show a decreased republican majority.

Late dispatches from White River Junction, Vt., say the election of Poland in the second district is somewhat doubtful. 81 towns are to be heard from in the district, 18 of which in Orleans county have gone for Grout.

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 6.—Election returns come in slowly, beyond precedent, much less than half the state having been heard from. Returns indicate a republican vote of 35,000 and a democratic vote of 15,000. The vote is very light. In the second district less than half the towns have been heard from. These give Poland, 7468; Fletcher, 5452; Grout and scattering, 2802. Indications are that there is no choice, which will necessitate a second election. In the first district Stewart is elected by 10,000 majority.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 6.—29 more towns in the 2d district give Poland 3131, Fletcher 1041, Dunbar and scattering 140, Grout 561. Poland's majority over all, 1165, or an aggregate majority in 107 towns of 2155 over all with 54 towns to be heard from. The complexion of the 1st district not changed by additional returns.

Gen. Rosecrans' Reply.

New York, Sept. 6.—Gen. Rosecrans told an interviewing reporter who asked whether the democratic committee had done anything toward carrying Maine: "Very few of our young men are so clear headed as to understand that the franchise is a trust reposed in the citizen, and not an absolute right which he exercises at will. You newspaper writers should teach our young men this and keep driving in the idea till it sticks. Some of our people think they have a right to sell their votes and to instruct that our committee would use money to influence voters to do something which, to say the least, is not complimentary.

A Political Trick.

Milwaukee, Sept. 6.—Gen. E. S. Bragg has been arrested on suit of Jno. A. Rice, of Chicago, to recover $1250 advanced on drafts not honored. The general was on the point of leaving for the congressional convention in his district, and it is charged that the step was taken to prevent his renomination.

Democrats Carry Arkansas.

Little Rock, Sept. 6.—Jaack, republican nominee for governor, who resides here and is very popular personally, has carried the county. He doubtless leads the republican ticket in the state 1500 votes. Returns show increased democratic majorities on the state ticket whose majority is larger than contemplated. The greenback vote is very small.

Prof. Wallace occupied the chair. At the close of the lecture Rev. This elicited signs of disapproval from a large part of the audience.

More than ordinary interest was manifested in the meeting of the convention at seven o'clock this evening. A large proportion of the delegates were in attendance, and the opera house was crowded with people. Fears were entertained this afternoon of dissensions at the election, but those are happily removed, and whatever nomination was made it is now felt will be sure to meet the hearty support of the entire democratic party. Dufur Elected in Wasco County.

The Dalles, Sept. 6.—The election passed off quietly. No interest was taken in it except by the ... and some democrats. The Dalles gave Dufur 97 majority. Hood River 37 and Dufur 100. There is no doubt of his election. Full returns later.

SPORTING NOTES.

Good Shooting.

New York, Sept. 6.—The practice shooting at Creedmoor yesterday was very fine, but the English was finer than the American. The scores made by the former were so much ahead of the "Yankees" that unless a sharp and radical change is made the Americans will be literally nowhere.

Pigeon Match.

New York, Sept. 6.—In the pigeon shooting match in New Jersey, yesterday, between C. Dustyn, champion wing shot of Detroit, and D. Guthrie, of California, for $250 a side, Dustyn won by a score of 74 to 71.

Hanlan's Challenge.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST.

Eastern Oregon.

The Union county fair commences on the 18th of September and continues six days.

Prof. Irwin, president of the Blue Mountain university at La Grande, will open the school with a full corps of teachers on Monday, October 3, 1882.

C. G. Cunnington, late of Colfax, W. T., and associates will shortly open a banking establishment at Union, to be known as the Bank of Union. The safe and fixtures therefor were shipped from San Francisco on Aug. 15th.

Charles Goodnough, of Island City, has eight teams hauling hay to Meacham's and the new station on the Blue mountains to supply the stage company. Mr. Goodnough also has the contract for supplying the railroad contractors at Meacham's, and will furnish in the neighborhood of 200 tons at about $20 per ton.

Baker City Tribune: On Thursday of last week J. W. Virtue purchased $5610 gold dust taken from a private claim situated in the Pocahontas mines, and on Monday he held before our eyes a most tempting sight—$5220 in gold nuggets, ranging in value from 5 cents to $110, all taken from Ruam gulch, one of the Pocahontas mines.

Union Sentinel: On Sunday last a fire was, it appears, intentionally set out on the mountains above Joe Yowell's place and burned over six or seven thousand acres of fine grazing land. Quite a number of Mr. Yowell's sheep were caught by the fire and badly scorched, one of which has since died, and several others will probably die.

Miller & Lux, of San Francisco, recently bought Harper & McMahon's herd of 2500 cattle on the Malheur, Baker county, Leslie's herd on the Owyhee of about 1000, Drexler & Clark's herd on Burnt river of about 1000, and Chas. Becker's herd in Cow valley of about 1500, also all the small herds they can get, and are paying $22 per head for three-year-old steers.

Western Oregon.

George R. Graves died at his home in Salem on the 5th inst. of consumption.

The Astoria public school is in charge of Mrs. Lobb and Miss Mary F. Lawrence.

The Salem public schools opened Monday with an attendance of 464 pupils. The teachers' corps number 11.

Washington Territory.

Whitman Seminary opened Monday morning under the principalship of Prof. A. S. Anderson, with sixty students whose scholarship entitled them to admission. There were ten applicants rejected, they not being advanced enough in their studies to obtain admission to his classes.

The Walla Walla school directors have fixed the salaries of the teachers. There are two who are paid $80 per month, and five paid $50 per month. They have resolved to make the basement of the Baker building ten instead of eight feet high, to admit of a play-room during wet weather.

A Dayton correspondent says: On Sunday we visited the farm of Anthony Rockhill, seven miles northeast of Dayton. He located on the prairie ten years ago with a poor team and a family. He now has a forest of shrubbery, plenty of money and land and don't owe a cent. ... all by industry. He sold over $1000 worth of fruit, berries and vegetables last year, and has nearly every kind of tree, shrub, plant, vine and flower on his place that there is in existence.

Wm. Cochran & Co. is probably doing the biggest logging business of any firm on Puget Sound. They have run two large camps all summer, one on lake Gaton and the other on Squak Slough. At the lake Union camp 500,000 feet were put in the water for the month of August. The cut on the slough was large, the 1,700,000 feet now in Black river being all taken out at that camp. He is now opening a logging camp on the Adam Tosh place, where he expects to run all winter with from 18 to 22 men and eight yoke of cattle.

Agent Simms reports as follows regarding the Indians on the Coeur d'Alene reservation: There are about 525 Indians in the tribe, nearly all of them located permanently on farms of their own. The government does nothing for these people but give them school and an agent who protects their interests. Among them are two self-binding reapers, three mowers and common reapers, several sulky plows, a grain drill and numbers of plows and harrows. They own good cattle and horses, and are favorably known among their white neighbors. Their chief, Saltise, is generally known and respected by all the old settlers.

John Bennett, the well known nurseryman and florist of Whatcom, has lost several thousand young apple trees from the ravages of a small green fly which lit in countless swarms on the tops of the young trees, and by stinging or biting the buds prevented their germination. The first lot Mr. Bennett destroyed by a solution of carbolic soap dissolved in boiling water—one ounce and a half of soap to a gallon of water. This he says will kill them and not harm the tree. But in three or four days afterward another and a larger swarm of these green flies appeared, which covered the tops of every tree in his orchard, making it impossible to apply the carbolic soap solution. The result has been that not only the thousands of young seedling trees were destroyed, but his entire crop of apples, peaches, pears and plums were ruined.

Walla Walla Union: Charles Potter, the well-known driver of the Pendleton stage, informed us that Monday morning the body of a man named James Bloom was found on Squaw creek, near Thorn Hollow, about four miles south of Weston. When discovered the body was almost entirely stripped of clothing. The horse Bloom rode into Weston last Friday, when he came after some medicine for a sick child, was found near the body, without a saddle. Bloom not returning to the camp in the mountains on Friday night, as expected, search was made for him by parties from his camp, who procured the assistance of others from Weston. Mr. Potter did not learn whether any clue had been found to the murderer or murderers, or any cause for the commission of the crime. The crime is charged to Indians, but it is more than likely it was perpetrated by some of the tramps and vagabonds now infesting the country.

STORMS AND FLOODS.

Bridges Carried Away.

Laredo, Texas, Sept. 6.—A rise in the Rio Grande carried off the remainder of the bridges of the International and Great Northern and Mexican National R. R. which spans the river there.

Cyclone in Cuba.

Key West, Sept. 6.—A cyclone passed near Cuba yesterday, and probably over Cuba, east to west, depressing the barometers considerably, with high winds.

Better than a galvanic battery and a doctor besides is a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, the great German remedy for rheumatism.

A HARD FIGHT IN OHIO.

Gov. Foster and Gen. Nash Working Together for Mutual Good.

Columbus, Aug. 31.—Gov. Foster and Gen. George K. Nash have no personal risk in the fate of the republican state ticket, but each has a direct interest in the future and holds hopes that can only be realized by continued republican supremacy in Ohio. Nash desires to be the candidate for governor in 1883, and Foster is very serious in his candidacy for the United States senatorship that will be vacant at the expiration of Mr. Pendleton's term. The legislature which will fill that vacancy will be chosen at the same time the next governor is elected, and mutual interest leads Nash and Foster to work together. Nash cannot secure the nomination for governor without Foster's aid, and on the other hand Foster desires some one to run for the governorship who will not endeavor to step from the election into the senate. With Keifer, Lawrence or Noyes at the head of the ticket there is no telling where ambition might not lead after the election had made the first step secure. With Nash, Foster has no fear, as he has no aspirations for the senate, but is very anxious to fill the gubernatorial chair. The two, therefore, can work together for mutual good, and there are signs proving that the affiliation has existed for a considerable period.

The two leaders have gone into the fight with the purpose of giving the democrats the most serious opposition to their raid upon a republican state. They fully understand the gravity of the situation, they have counted the dangers that menace them, and if the democracy carry Ohio, it will be from no lack of labor on the part of these two leaders. It was at first Nash's intention not to take the chairmanship, but the urgent appeals of leading republicans in all parts of the state caused him to change his mind on condition that Foster would become a member of the executive committee. Foster consented, and from that day it was understood that the state would be canvassed and organized as it has seldom been in an "off year." Foster has already paid personal visits to various parts of the state, and there is not a county that he will not visit at least once between now and October. He believes that there is one way to carry the state, and that is to get out the full republican vote on election day. After all the chief danger of the year lies in this direction. The voters feel that outside of the temperance question there is little to call them to action, and that a great deal of humbug is mixed up with the fervent appeals to their party patriotism from postoffice-holding editors and stump-mounting candidates. The democratic platform is a cowardly thing, but it is hardly more so than the republican, and many voters are likely to stay at home on election day. This danger is far greater among republicans than democrats, and the republican managers are aware that it must be faced. As one of them said: "Hard work is about the only 'issue' that we have to count upon this year."

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 6.—Incendiaries burned the Locust Run coal breaker yesterday with houses and machinery, causing a loss of $50,000.

London, Sept. 6.—Fire occurred in Philharmonic theater at Islington this morning, and the roof of the building has fallen in. The interior of the house is completely burned out.

ACCIDENTS.

Probable Disaster.

Frankfort, Mich., Sept. 6.—Capt. Mathews, of the life-saving station, reports that he found bottom up the side of a steamer's upper cabin corresponding to the anchor line boat. The agent of the line in Chicago thinks the description does not tally with that of their boat. The Annie Young, however, is overdue, and may possibly have met with disaster.

The above Valuable Property is for Sale at a very low appraisement, viz: $9000, one-third of which can stand on Mortgage.

It is situated on Lewis and Clark's river, 7 miles south of Astoria, and 2½ miles from Clatsop beach. There is a good steamboat landing which is accessible to the O. R. & N. Co.'s river steamboats. About half of the 700 acres is tide land, well bridged, on which cattle keep fat the year round. The other half, level timber land, and about 300 acres in tame grass. Thousands of cords of hemlock, fir and spruce can be cut, worth two dollars and a half at the landing to which there is a good wagon road from all points. Every cord cut finds a ready market. In addition, there is any quantity of mill lumber and good piles. Good dwelling house, barn, and necessary outhouses, with an orchard of 10 or 12 acres, containing almost all kinds of fruit bearing trees, etc., etc. This desirable property has a frontage of two miles on the river bank, and is admirably adapted for settlement by a company desiring to colonize, as it is large enough to divide into several farms and homesteads. Party wishing to sell is now supplying Astoria with milk, and if desired will hand over good will and business to the purchaser of the property.

If not sold before September 10th, at private sale, the whole property will be sold by catalogue sale, at Public Auction, to the highest bidders, for cash, on Friday, September 15, 1882, at 11 A. M., on the premises. Title Warranty Deed.

NewspaperARCHIVE®

The Daily Oregonian.
THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 7, 1882.

MITCHELL AS A POLITICIAN.

J. H. Mitchell's character as a lawyer has been sufficiently shown by the plain record in the Balch and Thomas transactions. THE OREGONIAN in exposing his part in these affairs has given the simple truth, nothing more. And any man who will examine the records will be forced to the conviction that Mitchell's conduct in getting for himself the inheritance of the Balch heirs and of Mrs. Thomas' little children was that of an unscrupulous, merciless man. If any man doubts the honesty of our reports in these matters, let him learn for himself. The records are open. It is worth while to look at the political character of the man who now asks to be elected to the great office of senator. In 1866, when a candidate for the United States senate, Mitchell, with the assistance of a few men who made politics a trade, carried the precinct meetings in his own interest. The sentiment of the republicans of the city was outraged. So indignant were some of the leading men of the party that a meeting was called and a committee appointed to investigate the whole proceedings. It was found that out of 345 votes in South Portland precinct by men whose names were recorded by the secretary of the meeting only 163 could be found on the city directory or on the poll books of the last election, and the committee reported the balance as fraudulent. "Men were carried publicly from poll to poll and voted twice," so the committee reported. To show the sentiment of the republicans of Portland, and how silly is the talk that THE OREGONIAN's protests against Mitchell are prompted by personal dislike on the part of its chief editor who is now in Minnesota, we print the committee's report in full:

The committee who were named by the chairman of the union meeting on the 22d inst., report as follows: They have, at the request of a large number of union voters, decided to go on with the investigation, which it was the intention of union men attending the meeting to authorize. They will only refer to the resolutions offered by Gov. Gibbs and Dr. Watkins, which were voted down at the precinct meeting by a large vote of men who had no right to vote there. These resolutions were to confine the voting to those who had voted for President Lincoln, who had not voted for McClellan, and who were residents of the precinct. These facts, so well known, are sufficient in their opinion, to have created the dissatisfaction so generally felt. On the subsequent day a call was made for a meeting of union men to remedy the wrong. At the meeting the same turbulent disposition was shown by the same crowd that carried the election, as the committee think, fraudulently. Resolutions were then offered to appoint a committee to investigate the rumored frauds in the election, and to suspend any further action until the committee report. These resolutions were voted down, although evidently almost unanimously voted for by all those who had a right to vote.

The evidence that we have obtained of fraud is conclusive. We have a list of the voters, (345 in number) who voted at the southern precinct. Of this number, 163 are found in the directory and on the poll books; the remainder are not found anywhere, and the number of 182 are believed by us to be in a great part fraudulent.

Over two hundred names of well-known Union men in the South Portland precinct are not on the list of voters. From this fact we believe that the election would, if fairly conducted, have gone exactly contrary to the result of Tuesday. We have the testimony of a number of respectable men that many democrats of their acquaintance confessed to voting at the said Union precinct meeting. The same state of things existed at the polls of both precincts. Men were carried publicly from poll to poll, and we have reason to believe that many persons voted twice, once at each poll. So disgraceful were the proceedings at the precinct meetings that a very large number of Union men withdrew from the convention in disgust, declining to vote or in any way to have anything to do with the election—at the southern precinct before voting had commenced, and at the northern one within twenty minutes of the opening of the polls.

(Signed.)
S. COFFIN,
R. MENDENHALL,
R. HENDRIE,
JOHN THOMPSON,
Committee.

It is scarcely necessary to add a comment to this damaging report. It shows Mitchell's utter disregard of honesty and right when his own purposes are in the balance. Those who care for the best interests, name and fame of the state should read this report and heed its lesson. The man who introduced the worst political methods into our state is not a proper man to be made senator.

THE PARTY LASH ON A PARTY HACK.

Of course democrats throughout the state were disgusted at the prostitution by the Standard editor of the columns of his paper in the interest of J. H. Mitchell. Prominent members of the party in Portland were outspoken in their censure, and the organ grinder had the discretion to take down sail in very short order. But returns from the interior are just now coming in. The Roseburg Independent (democratic) of Saturday last says:

"We have always been thankful that success or defeat never wiped the democratic party out of existence. We have been thankful that notwithstanding the Waterloos it has encountered, the principles which it espouses have been so dear to its leaders, so precious to its rank and file, that the grand old party became dearer to its adherents. But alas it belongs to the young state of Oregon for the party leaders to advise and openly espouse a course inconsistent with our principles and so dishonorable as to scarcely have a parallel in history. The leading democratic journal of the state, for probably a few dollars, [the italics are ours] advocates the cause of a republican bigamist, a humbug, a lobbyist, a machine politician, for United States senator. A distinguished democratic state senator asserts that he will vote for the same individual. The democrats in the legislature should vote for a pure, consistent, intelligent democrat for senator, and a man every way worthy of the compliment, worthy to be considered the leader of the democracy of Oregon, and whose pure, spotless public and private life are in strong contrast with Hipple-Mitchell is the Hon. W. D. Fenton, of Yamhill. Let the democratic legislators vote for such a man and let the republicans elect Mitchell, if they wish, and then see which party would stand higher in the public opinion."

The Jacksonville Times, another democratic paper and one of the best and most influential, adds its voice of censure, and says that if the Standard would attend with more fidelity to the interests of the party which it claims to represent it would not be in such sore need of "crumbs." Thus the leaders of the democratic party chide the weakling who grinds the poor party organ.

THE CITY'S FINANCES.

At the beginning of the present year the city of Portland was in debt to the amount of $100,000, the maximum allowed by charter. Of this indebtedness $76,500 was bonded and $23,500 floating. The committee on ways and means estimated that a tax of 10 mills, with the addition of the temporary loans of $23,500, which could be renewed at any time, would be sufficient to pay the year's expenses. In the estimates $33,000 was appropriated to the Willamette river fund. The expenditures for the dredger, scows and appurtenances by the time operations shall be commenced will not fall short of $48,000, and the running expenses for two months will be about $2000—say $50,000 in all. The amount above the original estimate must come from the $23,500, which the committee intended to apply to deficiencies in other departments and leaves them only $6500. The street lamp fund is already exhausted, and last night $5000 was transferred to it from the police fund. Fines having been greater and expenses smaller than estimated early in the year, there was created a surplus which just now saved [illegible]. To provide against deficiencies [illegible] the property owned by the city [illegible] street adjoining No. One's engine house will be sold. It is thought that from $10,000 to $12,000 will be realized from the sale.

The total fish-catch of Canada for 1881, according to the commercial agent at Ottawa, was worth $15,817,162 an increase of $1,517,182 over 1880. Nova Scotia leads the provinces with a catch of $6,214,781; and the others follow in this order: New Brunswick, $2,930,904; Quebec, $2,751,926; Prince Edward Island, $1,955,289; British Columbia, $1,454,321; Ontario, $509,903. The total number of vessels employed in the fishing was 1120; boats and fish, 24,242; sailors, 8659; fishermen and shoremen, 17,054.

According to veracious newspaper correspondents, the Hon. Mark H. Dunnell, of Minnesota, has declared that the Hon. William Windom has not an honest hair in his head, and the Hon. William Windom has declared that the Hon. Mark H. Dunnell has not an honest hair in his head. These two gentlemen ought to be explained, are trying to get the same prospective vacancy in the United States senate. Windom has possession, but he goes out next March, and Dunnell wants to succeed him. Windom began the personal veracity issue by saying in open senate that Dunnell's whisky bill was the creature of fraud and bribery. He was obliged to acknowledge, however, that his investigation discovered no evidence to sustain the accusation. Dunnell voted for the salary grab, and Windom did not, but beyond that little is known of the personal character of each, unless, indeed, each has told the truth concerning the other.

There is a point here, says the Salem Statesman: "If, as it is claimed by the friends of Hon. J. H. Mitchell, that the popular voice of the people was for his election, why the necessity for so much unseemly effort to force his election? If he were the idol of the people of southern and eastern Oregon, why did they not send his friends to the legislature instead of democrats? and why should the Marion county members, who hold their seats in the legislature, not by the support of the friends of Mr. Mitchell, but in spite of their opposition, be so earnestly solicited to abandon friends and turn their backs upon the people who honored them with their suffrages, to support a machine that was worked to its full capacity to compass their defeat?"

The Roman Catholic publishers have united in a circular letter to the archbishops, bishops and clergy of the Roman church and the heads of religious institutions in the United States, in which they not only announce a reduction in the price of books suitable for circulation in their parish libraries, but bitterly lament the want of interest in denominational literature within the circle of their communion. With all the increase to the number of Roman Catholics, hardly half as many books are now sold as were sold twenty years ago.

The council ordered 3000 feet of hose last night, to cost $4500. It will not be accepted till subjected to thorough test, and the sellers guarantee it for a series of years. This is in striking contrast with the conduct of a former council in the matter of hose purchase. It is to be hoped that the people will so appreciate the excellent and honest course of the present council that it will never again be possible to fill the chairs with disreputable or trifling men.

In England military drill is systematically taught to the boys attending 1172 day schools; cookery is taught in 800 schools; in 1187 savings banks have been established, and school libraries in 2382. The expenditures of the board schools are steadily decreasing; the average cost per child throughout England and Wales has diminished during the last six or seven years by more than $1 25.

The council has granted to Mr. George Weidler the privilege of erecting poles and wires, preparatory to the introduction of the electric light throughout the city. Mr. Weidler's plans are not yet made public.

The political contest in California promises to be close, though the chances are in favor of the republicans. Estee, it is thought, will easily beat Stoneman. The 7th of November is the day of election.

Both parties in Nevada have nominated what the press report calls "strong tickets." The contest, as usual in that state, will be a "coin fight." The sacks will soon begin to clash.

EXPLORING PARTY RETURNS.—The [party] which was sent under command of Capt. [illegible] Pierce, of the 21st infantry, to explore the [illegible] part of Washington territory and report o[n its] graphical aspect, reached Vancouver yeste[rday] an absence of six weeks. During the trip [the offic]ers and men experienced much hardship [illegible] [illegible] The commander left Fort Colville, [illegible] and pushed in a westerly line fo[r the] mountains. The ascent was so steep [that the] horses could be got across the summit. [illegible] three horses one of the pack mules went over a precipice [illegible] of the pack mules [illegible] about 50 revolu[tions] [illegible] and after making about 50 revolu[tions] ... soon landed at the bottom of the [illegible] distance of 125 feet. At their horse was [illegible] same manner, and a valuable mule was [killed.] A rattlesnake and died shortly afterward. [illegible] animals and a number of the men were [illegible] Fort Colville. The service was found in [illegible] After being out nine weeks the provisions [gave] out, and for five days the party su[bsisted on] quarter rations. Part of the country tra[versed] is reported to be exceedingly rich in [illegible] The territory traversed by the [party] fearfully rough, consisting of steep decli[vities] [illegible] places the ascent was perilous. F. Wilson accompanied the party as su[rgeon] is now able to candidly say that he under[stands the] "roughing it" means in its more lib[eral sense.] Knowledge gleaned from this expedition [illegible] great advantage in the event of an Ind[ian war] that locality. It is said that a new trail [illegible] over the mountains, but of this nothin[g was] learned.

ATTEMPTED ESCAPE.—Smith and M[cKern, the] highway robbers, endeavored to break [out of the] county jail yesterday, but were frustrated [in the at]tempt by the jailer, Mr. Ed. Doherty. [When the] two criminals were taken up stairs be[fore Judge] Stott, to receive sentence, they had [formed a] plan to escape before they should be lock[ed up] in their cells. Therefore, when bro[ught up] stairs, they asked Jailer Doherty to be [allowed to] walk up and down in the corridor, a[s it was a] chance for exercise before their shackle[s were] replaced. The favor was granted, bu[t they] were watched more closely than the[y knew.] When he thought no one was looking, [Smith] from around his body, underneath hi[s clothes, a] piece of rope. This he fasten[ed to] the lock of the corridor door [and then] to the bars of a cell near by. Then, wit[h a] stick, he made a "Spanish windlass," [illegible] Smith stood carelessly in front of him [illegible] operations, tried to pry off the lock. A[t this] Jailer Doherty, thinking things had gone [far enough,] stepped in and placed both men in [illegible] McKern had taken the rope from his b[ody] fastened it around his body while dress[ing in] sens clothes for his appearance in court [illegible] shackles were first removed, upon his [illegible] Salem, the bolt was found to be cut [illegible] After this attempt at escape, the jail wa[s] searched, and upon one of the prisoners [was found] a fine steel spring saw, of superior [make] fitted the notch made in sawing the shac[kle.] every prisoner in the jail was cognizan[t of the at]tempt, and were ready to make a break [if it suc]ceeded. Additional precautions will [be taken] with Smith and McKern until they can [be taken] to the penitentiary.

RECOMMENDING CHANGE IN CITY BO[UNDARIES.]—Mr. Failing in presenting the report of [the commit]tee appointed to revise the city char[ter said] they deemed it unwise to suggest [many] changes. They expurgated the more g[laring in]congruities, classified the chapters and pu[t the] sections into better shape. The only [change] of importance was an extension [of the] boundaries, which they suggest shoul[d be made] by the following lines: "Beginning a[t the north]west corner of section 29 in township [1 north,] range 1 east, of the Willamette merid[ian; run]ning thence in a southeasterly directio[n in a straight] line to the southwest corner of the so[uth half of] section 9 in township 1 south, of [range 1 east] of the Willamette meridian; thence e[ast on the] south line of said section 9 and the [illegible] section 10, and a projection thereof to [the center of] the Willamette river; thence norther[ly along the] center of said river until it shall inter[sect the] line of the west line of section 20 of [township 1] north, of range 1 east; thence along [said line] and the projection thereof to the pl[ace of begin]ning." This will extend the city ab[out one mile] farther south and the same distance w[est.]

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Mayor Chapman Vetoes the New Fire Limit Ordinance.

PROPOSITION TO SELL THE PUBLIC LEVEE.

Auditor Durham Resigns—The City to have Electric Lights—Getting after the First Street Railway—3000 Feet of New Hose Ordered.

A regular meeting of the city council was held last night, Mayor Chapman in the chair, and all councilmen except Scoggin present.

... [illegible] ...

Mayor Chapman submitted the following veto message:

... [illegible] ...

There is also a serious legal question involved as to whether or not the city has the power to thus place such a restriction upon the use and enjoyment of property within its limits, or to prevent the realization of any rent or profits therefrom. Respectfully yours, J. A. CHAPMAN, Mayor.

The question "shall the ordinance pass?" was lost by a tie vote. Yeas—Adams, Chittenden, Hewett and Scoggins; nays—Holman, Honeyman, Raleigh and Smith.

APPOINTMENTS.

The mayor submitted a communication appointing Thos. Lyon, G. H. Ward, Chas. DuBois, Robert A. Bever, Rodney Tompkins and A. B. Notes special policemen at Mechanics' fair. Appointments confirmed.

The Mayor appointed Capt. D. E. Buchanan superintendent of the city dredger. Referred to special dredger committee.

ROTTEN HOSE.

The following communication was read and referred to the committee on fire and water:

The undersigned, representing the associated fire insurance agents of Portland, would respectfully call the attention of your honorable body to the dangerously inefficient character of the hose now supplied to and used by the fire department. This inefficiency was strikingly manifested on the 30th ult., at the fire on the corner of B and First streets, where 15 lengths (750 feet) were burst in less than an hour, and while being worked under a very low pressure, too low to give effective service. It is not too much to say that if the hose had been such as to enable the engines to work all the time with suitable pressure, several thousands of dollars in value that were destroyed, would now be in existence to the benefit of its owners and the revenue of the city.

We are informed that of the entire supply there is now less than 1000 feet that can be considered thoroughly reliable, and that all of it having seen considerable service may be expected to show weakness at any time. We are aware that your honorable body has recently authorized the purchase of 1000 feet of new hose. But in view of the facts above stated this must be considered a totally inadequate amount to remedy the critical state of things now developed. There is, in our opinion, urgent need for the immediate purchase of at least 3000 feet of the best quality of hose obtainable, and on behalf, not only of the insurance interest considered as a business, but more forcibly in behalf of the owners of the vast amount of taxable values which go uninsured, and which lie at the mercy of any conflagration, we urgently request your honorable body to act promptly in procuring this additional supply.

We would take this occasion to also ask that the steam ferry boat Veto be promptly supplied with the few and inexpensive parts of her equipment as a fire boat requisite to enable her to get promptly to the scene of a fire when called and to do effective work when there. The objects for which she was fitted up with an expensive apparatus at the city's expense cannot be accomplished while any necessary portion of her outfit is not supplied to her. Respectfully submitted, P. C. SCHUYLER, Pres.; JAMES S. REED, Sec'y. Of the Associated Fire Insurance Agents of Portland.

PETITIONS, REMONSTRANCES, ETC.

From R. R. Riley and others, remonstrating against the improvement of Salmon street; referred to committee on streets.

From George Woodward and others, asking for the improvement of North Eighth street from M to Front, by bridging; same reference.

From C. D. Lownsdale, asking for the improvement of Seventh street from Madison to Clay; same reference.

From the secretary of the treasury concerning the assessments of Morrison and Sixth streets, in front of the custom house; referred to committee on judiciary.

CHARTER COMMITTEE REPORT.

Messrs. Henry Failing, John Catlin and C. A. Dolph, to whom was referred the work of revising the city charter, presented their report, which was received and referred to a committee, consisting of the mayor, the judiciary committee, and councilmen Adams, Scoggins and Hewett.

RESIGNATION.

R. L. Durham, auditor and clerk, presented his resignation as such officer, to take effect September 15th, or as soon thereafter as his successor is qualified.

A motion to receive the resignation was lost by a unanimous vote.

REPORTS.

From the committee on health and police, recommending that the charges against Policeman Matthieu be dismissed, and that he be paid for the time served; adopted.

SLY OLD JAMES CASH.

Letting One Fellow-Prisoner after Another Out of the Riverhead Jail.

Frederick Vinton, twice escaped from the Riverhead, L. I., jail, where he was confined for breaking into Charles W. Raymond's house at Jamesport, and shooting Mr. Raymond, and thus gained celebrity as an accomplished criminal. It is now learned that the credit of these escapes is due to James Cash, who is sixty-seven years old, weighs 250 pounds, is an invalid, and is very lame. A year and a half ago he was sentenced to prison for an aggravated assault upon a lawyer named Griffin. In jail he made much ado over religious matters, and pasted his cell over with religious pictures and Scripture texts. He had a pretty daughter, and by dint of her coaxing and his pretence of piety he obtained an exceptional decree of personal liberty, being allowed to walk in the corridors and getting other privileges.

Pretty soon, however, Sheriff Cooper began to lose his prisoners. During four years previous to Cash's advent only one had escaped, but now nearly every month one would fit a key to the lock of his cell and the outer doors, or deftly file out the bars of his cell window. No one suspected good old Cash. The first time Vinton was arrested he managed to give the Brooklyn detectives the slip, but being recaptured six months later, he sawed out a bar from his window and was again at liberty. Three months later he was returned to his old quarters, but only stopped a little while. He unlocked the cell doors, as it was thought, with false keys. Sheriff Cooper offered a reward. Vinton was again captured and taken to Riverhead, where he now is. The mystery of the two escapes of Vinton and of the breaking out of ten others during the period of Cash's incarceration remained a secret. Vinton would not tell, although various devices familiar to prison-keepers were resorted to to induce him to speak. A couple of days ago the mystery was solved. While whitewashing Cash's cell, a niche between a stone in the wall and the iron frame of the door was found to be artificially filled and whitewashed over. Investigation was made, and the cavity found to contain two curiously constructed keys, one to the inner prison door and the other to the outer door. The key to the inner door is very ingeniously made. It is constructed out of the handle of an iron soup spoon, filed into shape and strengthened by lashing along its entire length a stout piece of iron wire broken off from the handle of a bucket. The wire is turned so as to form a strong handle. The key to the outside door was made out of an old-fashioned iron candlestick. The tube of the candlestick was broken off, pounded flat, and filed out into shape, making a very strong and thoroughly-fitting key. Both keys are about eight inches long. How Cash came into possession of the keys was a mystery, but it is now known that the old man took an impression of the locks in soap, filed the iron with a file smuggled in by his daughter, and, while walking the corridors, carefully fitted his keys. Whenever he wanted a little fun at the sheriff's expense he would obligingly pass a criminal out of the doors during the dusk of evening, or, for variety's sake, give him a file and a bit of candle, and assist him to cut through a window bar. He considered himself too lame and feeble to get away, so he devoted himself to getting even with the sheriff, whom he owed a grudge because of his testifying against him upon his trial. When taxed with having made the keys Cash turned his eyes heavenward and declared that he had found them recently, and fearing that some of the wicked men in the jail might take it into their heads to walk out, he secreted them. The other day he sent for a clergyman, confessed that he had aided Vinton, but no others, to escape, and made a great time about his conscience. He is now kept in close confinement. He is now looked upon as a dangerous criminal. Who he is is a mystery. He keeps his own secrets, and was a stranger in the neighborhood where he was arrested.—New York Sun Aug. 18.

"Madame" is preparing about half-past 10 P. M. to go out "for the evening," as she is accustomed to do rather too frequently to please "Monsieur," who has made up his mind for the fiftieth time to assert himself. The following dialogue ensues: Monsieur—"Where are you going, my dear?" Madame—"Where I please." "But when will you be back?" "When I choose, sir." "Very good of course; but no later; I should not permit that."—French paper.

IS IT POSSIBLE

That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.—Post.

EASTERN FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

Eastern Freight Situation.

New York, Sept. 6.—There does not appear to be any improvement in the freight market for shipment, and movement at wharves of both lines is rather quiet, although not especially so far this season, when proverbially is always more or less dull. The principal movement just now is of railroad-iron, oil and lumber, and these four articles generally comprise at least one-half of each cargo that leaves this port, the remainder of the cargo being composed mainly of raw material. The volume of manufactured goods going forward is gradually growing less each year. The leaving ship is the Eureka, to be loaded by the 5th inst. Rates remain as before, and are not likely to go any higher. Tonnage is in fair supply. The demand has slacked off. Negotiations are pending for a ship to follow the Lucille in Van Vleck's line. Isthmus freights are very dull for other than such goods as railroads do not care to carry, and these are forwarded by steamer.

New York Markets.

New York, Sept. 6.—Markets are generally steady under moderately active inquiry for most of the leading products, and in some cases prices are higher.

Wheat—Fairly active and steady.

Barley—Nominal for want of supplies.

Provisions—In light demand, but prices firm.

Rio coffee—Very dull and lower.

Refined sugars—In moderate demand and prices steady. Crushed, 9 3/4 cents.

Hops—Quiet; choice 1881 held at 55c.

Hides—Quiet and very firm; California held at 15c to arrive.

Leather—Held at full prices.

Foreign dried fruits—All nominal. Prospects of a large crop of new raisins somewhat embarrass holders, who are anxious to dispose of the stock on hand.

Wool—Less active; sales 30 bales northern and shearing California at 30c, and 10,000 lbs of pulled at 32c.

Borax—Fair jobbing demand; prices unchanged.

Quicksilver—Firmer at 35@35 1/2c.

Crude whale oil—Better demand; sales at New Bedford 880 bbls of South Sea and 375 bbls humpback, private.

Turpentine—Steady.

Raisins—Low grades firm at a decline, with good demand.

Gold and Stock Reports.

Wheat—There is a fair demand, but prices are easy. No. 1 white, $1 65; extra choice shipping, $1 67 1/2; sale of No. 1 white, buyer the year, $1 ...

Flour—Oregon and Walla Walla, $4 75@5 10; market quiet.

Eggs—Cala fresh, 42 1/2@45c; sales fair Oregon, 37 1/2c; demand not stimulated by the advance. There is no demand for poor.

Butter—Fresh roll, market steady and quiet, 37 1/2 @40c.

Chicago Grain Notes.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—The receipts of grain are heavy again to-day, aggregating nearly 750,000 bushels, and being 267,000 bushels for wheat alone. The weather is also fine, and all crop reports are favorable, showing wheat is safe from the weather, and the only thing that will hurt corn must come from the early frosts. Prices, nevertheless, made strong advance all around, corn being particularly buoyant. It is believed that one cause of the advance was the decision of the arbitration committee yesterday, which is regarded as favorable for high prices.

London Wool Sales.

London, Sept. 6.—At wool sales to-day 10,800 bales were sold, chiefly of Sydney and Port Phillip. There was good spirit and prices firm.

THE BARLOW ROAD.

THE MT. HOOD AND BARLOW ROAD COMPANY having recently purchased the franchise of the "Old Barlow Road Company," announce that their road crosses the Cascade Mountains superior to all kinds of travel. The company having constructed a branch road from Sandy P. O. to the Toll Gate up the south bank of the Big Sandy, the travel will be able to avoid the long, tedious route over the "Devil's Back Bone" and the five miles of heavy sand on the old road.

The bridges are all in good repair, and all the heavy hills are graded. The company are spending large amounts of money on the road, and will spare no pains to give everybody satisfaction ... over the Cascade Mountains ... supply stations with provisions at the Toll Gate ... Toll reasonable.
